

Nell Brown is an educator, community leader, advocate, and mother of three dedicated to expanding opportunity and justice for families across Alabama. A proud graduate of Miles College, she is currently pursuing her Doctor of Jurisprudence at Miles Law School, where she is preparing for a career focused on civil rights and helping the wrongfully convicted regain their freedom.

Nell serves as Vice Chair of the Board of Directors for Regenerate Society, HOA President for MeadowRidge Subdivision and is the presumptive Democratic nominee for Alabama House District 15. She is passionate about strengthening education, supporting families, and empowering the next generation of leaders.

In recognition of her leadership and service, Nell received the 2024 Women in Leadership Award from the Miles College Birmingham Alumnae Chapter. Guided by her commitment to community and justice, Nell believes leadership means standing up for people and making sure every voice is heard.
